DIY Sanitizing Wipes Recipe 1

Prep Time 2 minutes Soaking Time 5 minutes

Ingredients

1/2 roll select-a-size paper towels 18 ounces 99% isopropylalcohol (or at least 70%) 5 ounces water 2 tablespoons hydrogen peroxide 45 drops essential oils

Siletz Tribal Child Passenger Seat Program

Car seat assistance is available to Siletz Tribal member children and legal dependents of Siletz tribal members. Please call or email Cecilia at the Salem Area Office to schedule an appointment time.

Instructions

Cut your roll of papertowels in half using a non-serrated knife. Squeeze one half of the paper towels into a large jar or coffee container

Mix all the liquid ingredients together in a spouted measuring cup, bowl, or pitcher and pour over the paper towels. Let solution soak into the paper towels. Optional step: Flip the paper towels over to help the liquid absorb. If your roll of paper towels comes out easily from your container, I recommend this step to help with saturation.

Make sure to use at least 70% alcohol in your DIY Lysol or Clorox wipes, or they will not be effective. Studies have shown a minimum of 62% alcohol is effective.

Melanoma/Skin Cancer Detection and Prevention

Skin cancer is the most common type of cancer in the United States. Ultraviolet (UV) radiation from the sun is the main cause of skin cancer. UV damage can also cause wrinkles and blotches or spots on your skin. The good news is that skin cancer can be prevented, and it can almost always be cured when it's found and treated early.

The Siletz Community Health Department is proud to participate in Melanoma/Skin Cancer Detection and Prevention Month. During the month of May, join us in taking action to prevent skin cancer and reduce the risk of UV damage.

Take simple steps today to protect your skin:

- Stay out of the sun as much as possible between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.
- Use sunscreen with SPF 15 or higher. Put on sunscreen every 2 hours and after you swim or sweat.
- Cover up with long sleeves and a hat.
- Check your skin regularly for changes.

Make an appointment with your health provider immediately if you discover any spots or have other skin condition concerns.

SILETZ HOME VISITING PROGRAM - Lori Christy, Home Visitor

Please help us spread the word! Siletz Tribal Home Visiting is now serving all federally recognized and Alaskan Native families who meet the eligibility requirements. Family must be in our 11 county service area and be expecting or have a baby less than 12 months old. Please contact our Home Visitor for more information and eligibility requirements, Lori Christy, loric@ctsi.nsn.us or 503-390-9494.

Children are learning all the time as they play and interact with others and the world around them. Providing a variety of things for your children to explore and play with, things to experience and many interactions with you and others, is a perfect way for them to learn. Here are a few things you can try.

Counting Fingers and Toes

Toddlers love to count their fingers and toes. Count their fingers or toes out loud while pointing to each one. Help them learn how to touch each one only once as you count out loud. As they try it on their own they may count out of order, that is very normal and not important at this stage. The more you count fingers and toes and other objects they will eventually learn the concepts of numbers.

For different variations of this learning activity for toddlers and twos, count the stairs as you go up and down, count bubbles floating in the air, or count the number of plates in the dishwasher.

Skills learned: Basic number skills and one-on-one correspondence skills

Helping Errands

Little ones love to help so send your toddler on different "errands" around the house. Have them go get their shoes, take a toy to their room, find their cup etc. Not only does this give your one-year-old a sense of independence and accomplishment but they also are learning to listen and follow directions.

Skills learned: Understanding directions and memory skills

Finger Painting

Finger painting is fun for children of all ages although it can be a bit messy. If the weather is nice and you can go outside, and you are okay with some mess, then go for it. But if you want to stay inside without a mess here are some suggestions. Put some tempra paint in a Ziplock bag and let your child squish and spread the paint around through the plastic bag. You might want to use a slightly thicker bag like a freezer bag. You can tape the bag to the table so it stays in one place. If you want something to save you can put a piece of paper in the bag with the paint.

Skills learned: Sensory integration - exploring with touch and sight, fine motor skill development as well as creativity

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH - Rachel Zinn, Mental Health Specialist (MHS)

Spring has arrived:

The saying is, April showers bring May flowers. We experienced snow into the middle of April! As Oregonians, we know we're in for more rain, but here's hope that the flowers will be spectacular. Now is the time to tackle projects that were set aside for the thaw, like doing the bathroom remodel or making that quilt for your loved one you've been meaning to make.

Sometimes, we experience loss. When we do, it's important to grieve. Here are some aspects of grieving that are natural and completely reasonable:

- 1) Allow yourself to fully experience the pain of your loss. It can be hard to allow pain in, but it is a natural part of the grieving process. It can be detrimental to your health to avoid that pain, and can even cause long-term damage to your mental health. Grief is a part of life. That being said, it is also okay to put your grief away for a while, especially when it becomes overwhelming.
- 2) Talk with others, particularly people who have experienced a similar type of loss. No one understands how you feel, but people with similar experiences can share how they coped.
- 3) Express your grief through creative processes such as art, dance, music.
- 4) Be sure to keep physically active. It is a hard time to do so, but all the more important to keep mental health struggles such as depression at bay.

A May haiku by the MHS:

April showers passed, May flowers are here to bloom, Is that really snow?

Traditional Healing

For the people of the Siletz tribe, spring is a good time to rekindle the family's passion. Go to powwows together, participate in feather dances, go clamming together. Talking circles, sweat lodges and smudging are all traditional medicines that the Siletz people have found quite powerful throughout time.

Overcoming the Stigma of Mental Illness and Harnessing Your Super Powers!

Bipolar Personality Disorder (BPD) is characterized by individuals' who may experience unstable moods, exhibit chaotic behaviors, and struggle with daily functioning. Tribal communities play a key role in the healing of their members from the history of colonization, generational and family traumas (i.e., removal of children into foster care or previously, boarding schools). It truly does take a village to facilitate the healing of tribal members through cultural, traditional, and healing arts.

Symptoms: (Vary From Person to Person)

- Distorted self-image
- Feelings of isolation, boredom, worthlessness, and emptiness
- Mood swings, sometimes severe and sudden
- Feelings of anxiety
- Loss of interest in routine activities
- Suicidal thoughts
- Delusions
- Unstable relationships

Causes: Research indicates that BPD is an adult survivor's reaction to childhood trauma. Genetic and environmental factors may play a role....

Strengths: Individuals with BPD are highly creative, intelligent, and can become great leaders, storytellers, artists, and healers! Through the use of their super powers, they can bring about positive changes to the social fabric of society.

Self-Care:

- Find a support group to share experiences and feelings
- Explore emotion regulation coping skills (i.e., Dr. Marsha M. Linehan Dialectical Behavior Therapy Skills Training Manuals)
- Develop and maintain healthy social relationships by practicing with the group
- Psychotherapy and sometimes, medications can help individuals' stabilization

Accommodations: Specialized Job Placement – where the individual's behaviors can be accommodated, assignment of a Job Coach or Peer Mentor to facilitate communications, intervene in crisis, and help the individual adjust to their work environment. Show unconditional love and acceptance and keep your word!

Tobacco Related Cancers for the Month of May

Melanoma and Skin Cancers:

Melanoma is a cancer that develops in melanocytes, the pigment cells present in the skin. It can be more serious than the other forms of skin cancer because of a tendency to spread to other parts of the body and cause serious illness and death. Because most melanomas occur on the skin where they can be seen, patients or their spouses are often the first to detect suspicious tumors. Caught early, most melanomas can be cured with relatively minor surgery.

Bladder Cancer:

Bladder cancer is any of several types of cancer arising from the tissues of the urinary bladder. It is a disease in which cells grow abnormally and have the potential to spread to other parts of the body. Symptoms include blood in the urine, pain with urination, and low back pain. Risk factors for bladder cancer include smoking, family history, prior radiation therapy, frequent bladder infections, and exposure to certain chemicals. The most common type is transitional cell carcinoma. Other types include squamous cell carcinoma and adenocarcinoma.
