SILETZ

JOHNSON O'MALLEY (JOM) SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATION PROGRAM – SUPPORTING OUR TRIBAL YOUTH

The Siletz Johnson-O'Malley Supplemental Education Program is a federally funded program which was originally authorized by the Johnson-O'Malley Act of 1934. The overall mission of this program is to provide supplementary financial assistance to meet the unique and specialized educational needs of our Indian children.

In order for students to be eligible for the Siletz JOM Supplemental Education Program, they must:

- An enrolled member of a federally recognized Indian Tribe or Alaska Native
- -OR-
- Prove to be one-fourth (1/4) or more blood degree.
- Students must reside within the 11 county service area of the Siletz Tribe and be between the ages of 3 through grade 12 and attending public schools.
- Students must have an updated JOM Application on file each academic year.

For more information about JOM services and ways in which to access these services, please contact your local Education Specialist at your area office.
